

City of Arts & Innovation

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

October 21, 2011

Contact:

Cindie Perry
Intergovernmental Communications Officer
951-826-5975

Free Riverside Business Reception Connects Businesses with Resources

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – The City of Riverside and the Greater Riverside Chambers of Commerce are hosting the Riverside Biannual Business Reception on October 26. Of special interest to local small- and medium-sized businesses, the reception puts entrepreneurs in touch with resources that can help their businesses succeed and grow. It's an opportunity to join your elected city officials, executive leadership and independent agencies for networking and gathering valuable information at no cost.

The reception combines up-to-date information with a festive networking environment. Agencies represented include the IE Small Business Development Center, SCORE, the Riverside County Workforce Development Center, the Inland Empire Women's Business Center, the State Board of Equalization and many others.

The Biannual Business Reception is being held October 26, 2011, at the Riverside Downtown Marriott. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. and the program runs until 7 p.m.

For more information, call Sherry Shimshock, Business Liaison with the City of Riverside Development Department at (951) 826-2433.

###